

King John Rap

They call me the King, yes King John
Maybe, just maybe, you've heard of me
I need to tax the rich, but they think it's wrong
Why oh why, won't they let me be

You know I've got to pay, for the wars,
If people oppose me gonna break their jaws
I'm a greedy English monarch, I want more and more
Fighting these Barons, Definitely a chore

But I won't die, I'm the King
Look at my honeys and all my bling
He won't die, he's the King
Look at all his honeys and all his bling

I said I won't die, I'm the King
Look at my honeys and all my bling
He won't die, he's the King
Look at all his honeys and all his bling

But alas no, had to sign the charter
A silly little thing, known as the Magna Carta
They presented it, I replied with laughter
But in the end, you know I had to barter

Barter for my life, just think
The people that I love, my brother and my wife
Isabella, Henry, don't you see
Within a month, they'd be the ruling monarchy

But I won't die, I'm the King
Look at my honeys and all my bling
He won't die, he's the King
Look at all his honeys and all his bling

I said I won't die, I'm the King
Look at my honeys and all my bling
He won't die, he's the King
Look at all his honeys and all his bling
