

Look where we are now

The scales are equal now
The debt has been repaid
Our broken lives can mend
Now, liberty is made
Oh, liberty is made

Cornered, and on my own
No power, in my hands
I'm no longer in control
Of the souls, that walk these lands
Of the souls, that walk these lands

Just look where we are now
Oh, just look where we are now
No one, would have believed
Since the day, this was agreed

On with our lives, like before
Can't believe, the impact caused
But this time round, we could have more
Much more than we endured
Much more than we endured

But just look where we are now
Oh, just look where we are now
No one, would have believed
Since the day, this was agreed

Just look where we are now
Oh, just look where we are now
No one, would have believed
Since the day, this was agreed

Look where we are now (repeat) *Vamp to end
