

Masters & Lords

The Queen is only one side of the coin
The sheen will wear off one day
Together the masses will join
Watching her power fade away

Rising higher, sinking lower
Rising higher, sinking lower

The government are Masters and Lords
The Royals' pieces on the board
Your knights mean nothing any more
So join us in the game as pawns

Sitting in her ivory tower
Captured in her royal web
Authority wanes by the hour
Living as a figurehead

Rising higher, sinking lower
Rising higher, sinking lower

The Government are Masters and Lords
The Royals' pieces on the board
Your knights mean nothing any more
So join us in the game as pawns

chorus x 2

Instrumental solo

History is not just yesterday
But today and tomorrow too
Too late to manipulate
We have always known it's true

Rising higher, sinking lower
Rising higher, sinking lower

The Government are Masters and Lords
The Royals' pieces on the board
Your knights mean nothing any more
So join us in the game as pawns

chorus x 2

So join us in the game as pawns
